Please Give me a forever home....

KERMIT

Kermit is a good natured boy. He loves receiving attention from everybody, he's especially happy with children. He likes to play with other dogs. Kermit is being taught basic commands and doing very good. He's also being housebroken. He likes walks on a leash, rides in the truck, running in a fenced yard, digging, chewing, playing tug, following his person everywhere, playing with his best dog friend and snuggling with his person. He is crate trained. Kermit is extremely affectionate and has tons of big puppy energy. He would do well with an active single person, and another dog companion, or with a family with children. He really needs to run and play, so a fenced yard would be ideal.
